Concert celebrates King's coronation

WITH the King's Coronation fresh in our minds, The Hills Choral Society is performing a selection of some of the finest music that has been used for Royal occasions in the past.

From grand and stirring "Zadok the Priest" by Handel, to Vaughan Williams delightful setting of Greensleeves, this concert promises to once again bring the Blackwood community an entertaining afternoon of great choral music.

The choir is excited to be able to introduce the elite trumpet skills of guest soloist Jason Ding who has a Master's degree from the Elder Conservatorium and is a professional brass instrument educator.

Jason will further add to the regal flavour of the music, and under the guidance of Music Director Ian Boath, this concert promises to be truly representative of "Music Fit For A King".

The concert will be held at the choirs' normal performance venue - Blackwood Church of Christ (cnr of Waite Street and Shepherds Hill Road) on Sunday May 28 at 2.30pm.

Bookings can easily be made through Trybooking (<https://www.trybooking.com/CHOOY>) or there will be limited door sales.

☐ Tickets are at the regular prices of $25 Adult; $20 Concession; and reduced prices for children.

Assistance with booking or help with any other enquiries can be arranged by contacting any member of the choir, through the website <https://hillschoralsociety.org> or Freecall 1800 717 483.
