MARCH—CHOIR BARBECUE

We had a good turnout, aided by good weather, for the occasion. Our hosts were Lynne and Nick, who set things up very well indeed for the event.

Part of the evening's entertainment was the game of "Jenga", brought along by an anonymous sadist for the amusement of those who lacked the courage to indulge!

A study in concentration: Angus, son of our MD and his wife, presented a flawless performance.

Fearless Helen, attacking the Jenga puzzle with thought waves.

Winding up: President Nicole with words of thanks to all. Our hosts, Lynne and Nick visible in the centre background, their backyard forming a natural amphitheatre for such an event.

MAY - CONCERT “MUSIC FIT FOR A KING”

Related to, but not inspired by, the upcoming Coronation of King Charles III.

The selection of grand music included:

Jubilate Deo (Stanford)

I Vow To Thee My Country (Holst)

Zadok the Priest (Handel)

Jason Ding (trumpet) with accompanist Chris Gould provided a stirring solo. ➡

Brilliant young organist, Frank May, provided the stirring accompaniment for “Zadok”, amongst other challenging and inspiring pieces.

“Zadok the Priest, and Nathan the Prophet, anointed Solomon King...”

A fanciful creation of the Court of Solomon by Poynter. Not the Coronation of Solomon itself, but the welcome to the Queen of Sheba by Solomon, and showing the supposed grandeur of his court.
